Department – Marathi Prabodhan

HIGHLIGHTS-

मागील दोन शैक्षणिक वर्ष 2020-21 आणि 21-22 ही लॉकडाऊन मध्ये गेली आणि त्यामुळे महाविद्यालयातले बरेच उपक्रम हे ऑनलाईन घ्यावे लागले.

ह्या पार्श्वभूमीवर 2022-23 या शैक्षणिक वर्षात मराठी विभाग आणि त्या अंतर्गत असलेल्या मराठी प्रबोधन या सांस्कृतिक मंचाद्वारे वर्षभरात अनेक कार्यक्रमांचे आयोजन करण्यात आले होते.

वर्षाच्या सुरुवातीलाच विद्यार्थ्यांसाठी संघ बांधणी आणि नेतृत्व विकास प्रशिक्षण कार्यशाळा अर्थात (Team building and leadership development training workshop) हा महाविद्यालयाच्या कालिदास सभागृहात घेण्यात आला. मराठी विभागाचे कार्यकर्ते तयार व्हावेत, त्यांच्यामध्ये पुन्हा नव्याने लॉकडाऊन च्या काळामध्ये जे एकत्र येऊ शकले नव्हते, त्यामुळे जे एक अंतर निर्माण झाले होतं ते दूर व्हावं आणि एक संघ म्हणून, एक टीम म्हणून विद्यार्थ्यांनी एकत्रितपणे काम करावं यासाठी या प्रकारची कार्यशाळा आयोजित करण्यात आली होती. 20 विद्यार्थी या कार्यशाळेत सहभागी झाले होते. 'अपनी शाला' या संस्थेच्या मयुरी गोलांबडे यांनी ही कार्यशाळा घेतली.

HIGHLIGHTS-

Purpose of the program: The main purpose of the event was to guide students to fulfill their aspirations by setting realistic goals.

Participants Profile: A total of 95 people attended the event, including the teachers and the core committee members.

About the program:

The event was commenced by the host Pooja Malpani, followed by the campus prayer by Janki Balasara. Then, Dr Shubhangi Patil, the HOD of the Economics department introduced the Economics Association, its members, and the teachers in charge. Then she gave information about the EA website 'Somaiyanomics' and the activities implemented on it. Along with this, the social activities being implemented with Sampurnearth and Khushiya Foundation were introduced. She mentioned that 66 students have participated in the plastic recycling activity jointly implemented by Sampurnearth and Economic Department.

After that our honorable principal Dr Veena Sanekar welcomed the guest and appreciated the activities being initiated under the Economic Association.

Finally, 'FINCREDIBLE' newsletter was unveiled by the resource person Mr. Maurya Hanspal and the principal ma'am to the audience. FINCREDIBLE is a guide to the world of finance and investment, including topics related to Investment Basic, Union Budget 2022-23, The Business Warren Buffet Ever had and Finance, Investment Books, and many more.

Moving on, Dr Mahendra Mishra sir introduced our esteemed resource person Mr. Maurya Hanspal. He was welcomed by the principal ma'am with a bouquet. Mr. Maurya Hanspal, Founder of Motivational Monetary Funds, has completed his graduation in B.com Hons at Delhi University. He did his MBA in Finance from ICFAI Business School, Hyderabad. He has done various professional and certificate courses, awarded as Best Swimmer award for 3 years in college, and was Silver Medalist at Delhi international swimming championship. He is also a black belt in karate.

The Resource Person then began the career guidance session titled 'What to do to build a career in Finance?' He began the session by breaking various myths associated with finance. Firstly, he explained to students all about finance. After that, he gave information about who can pursue a career in finance, and the job opportunities available. This was followed by a brief and then a detailed explanation of the various areas in Finance where one could make a career, such as Consulting, Asset and Wealth Management, Banking, Corporate and Investment Banking, Financial Controller, Equity Research, etc. Then he gave detailed information about all the fields of career available. This was followed by a brief introduction to the skills required for a career in finance including Fundamental Analysis, Technical Analysis, Financial Modelling, Valuation, Scientific Research, Investment Products, Wealth Management, Excel, etc. Following the discussion, the Resource Person then opened the floor to questions where students actively participated, and cleared their doubts and queries.

After the completion of the session, the prize distribution ceremony started. Firstly, the members of the economic association were given certificates by the guests. Next in the series, last year's members of the Economics Association were honored with certificates. Further, the certificates were distributed by dignitaries to the winners of competitions organized by the Economic Association for the academic year 2021-2022 and 2020-2021.

Finally, the vote of thanks was presented by Dr Flora Pandya Ma'am and the students were requested to fill out the feedback form and the event was concluded with the national anthem.

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS - 55

Department – Drushti Film Forum

Highlights –

The academic year 2022-23 has commenced after two years of lockdown due to the Covid-19 pandemic. This year, all activities have resumed offline, including the screenings of films and discussions on films in the Drushti Film Forum. To encourage a larger audience, the year began with light short films from India, which were later replaced by feature films from around the world. Weekly screenings took place every Monday, featuring a different film each week. Following each screening, a discussion was held to allow for an exchange of ideas and perspectives on the film. The discussion was headed by the student committee and supported by the teaching committee, providing a platform for students to engage in critical analysis and reflection.

ACTIVITY NAME Guest Lecture on ‘Consequences of Russian-Ukrainian War and its Political Handling in Germany’

DATE/TIME - 28th January 2023

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS - 25

Department – Political Science Association

Association of Political Science of K.J Somaiya College of Arts and Commerce

“War is what happens when language fails.”

Diplomacy and dialogue are tools which must be used to avoid war and the loss of lives. The ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine is evidence of that fact, where thousands have died and been rendered homeless, resulting in an acute refugee crisis. The war is an event of great importance for world affairs, with Germany playing a significant role in providing refuge to fleeing Ukrainians.

And that was the chosen discussion topic for the guest lecture – Consequences of the Russian-Ukrainian War and its Political Handling in Germany.

The main objective of the seminar was to provide a well-rounded session for students to understand the nuances of the refugee situation and the background, reasons, and impact of the war.

The session was conducted by Ms. Alexandra Möckel, an alum of University of Leipzig, and currently a teacher of German at the University of Mumbai.

Ms. Alexandra conducted her lecture on the following points:

- Germany as a heterogenous, multi-ethnic immigration country

- The post-WWII economic crisis in Europe which turned Germany into a ‘Guest Worker Country’
- Previous refuge policies – 2000 Greencard Initiative and the debated refuge policy of 2015 during the European Refuge Crisis
- Political landscape of Russia and Ukraine, factored in with Western and anti-Western influences
- Historical ties between Russia and Ukraine
- The start of the conflict in 2014 with the annexation of Crimea
- Role of international organisations like the European Union and the UN
- Different kinds of aid provided by Germany during the conflict
- The question of Ukrainian refugees, and their treatment in Germany
- Differences in the German refugee policy of 2015, and the refugee policy of now
- Preferential treatment of Ukrainian refugees, over non-European refugees
- Possible solutions and the way forward

The guest lecture was moderated by Dr. Abhinaya Kamble ma’am, and was followed by a Question-and-Answer session. The questions raised by both the teacher and students were satisfactorily answered by Ms. Alexandra. The session had words of praise and appreciation from its participants. The session ended with a vote of thanks motion moved by Dr. Abhinaya ma’am. 25 students have participated in the session. The entire session was conducted in English Language.

Department – DLLE

Platform Used: Google Meet

Organisers: Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC) & Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension (DLLE) of K.J. Somaiya College of Arts & Commerce, Vidyavihar, Mumbai, 400077

Name of the Resource Person: Mrs. Anita Kukreja, Head Marketing & Channel Sales, IceWarp, ALUMNI 1997

Co-ordinator of EDC: Dr. Shobha Mathew

She is the Chairperson of Entrepreneurship Development Cell & an extension teacher of Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension

Members of EDC: Professor Monica Sawant

Participants' Profile: The student of BA, MA & B. Com section of our college attended this webinar. A total of 16 students were the curious attendees.

Aim: To enhance the entrepreneurial skill of the students and to give insight into various aspects of benefits and challenges of Market Research in start-ups.

Description of the Webinar:

The webinar began with the introduction by the EDC Chairperson, Dr. Shobha Mathew. Further with the introduction of the resource person, Mrs. Anita took over with hands on Market research in Start Ups.

Firstly, she made her point clear that when working in any start-up as a market researcher, one has to understand the significance of data identification & collection, its dissemination, analysis, interpretation & utilisation. She explained further its significance, such as in improving the decision making methods to solve problems holistically. For example, marketing research should be such that it might sell a comb to a bald person.

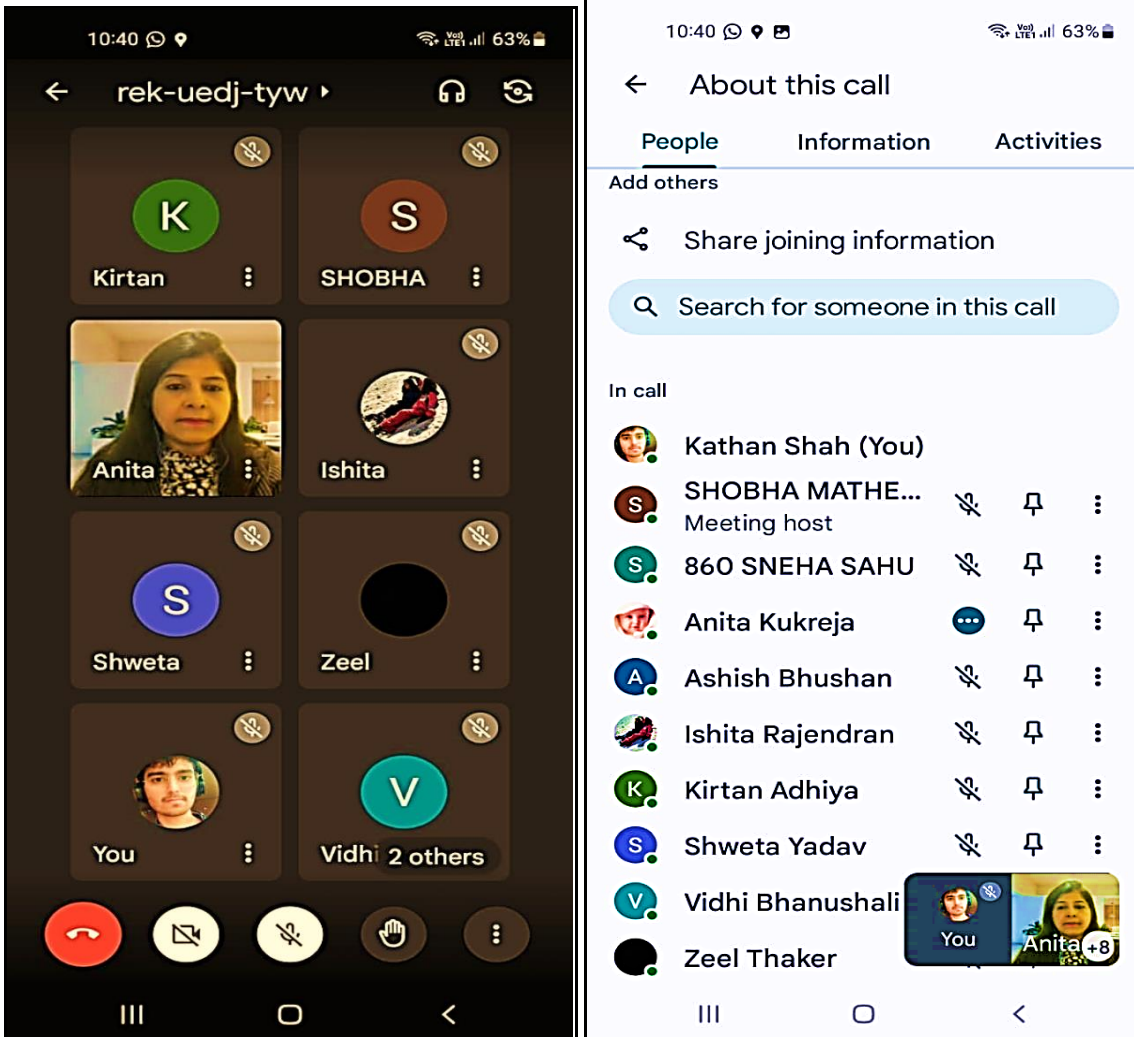

Identifying one's target audience that is expected to buy the product as a consumer- all considerations revolving around what, by whom, from where, when & how would consumer purchase the product, comprehension of all this by analysing market demand. Moreover, she detailed that it's essential to know competitions & their progress and Unique Selling Point (USP), which can be known by SWOT (Strength, Weakness, opportunities, Threat) analysis, or in simple words, asking questions like "What product they want?", "How will I retain customers?", "who are the decision makers?", "Is the market big enough to accept me & my solution?", "What is my capacity?", and so on, in order to know further how to do market segmentation & sectoral stratification wisely (whether vertically acquiring all production chain, or horizontal in different industries) and do the Pain-Point articulation, i.e. innovating a product to solve the problem of consumers.

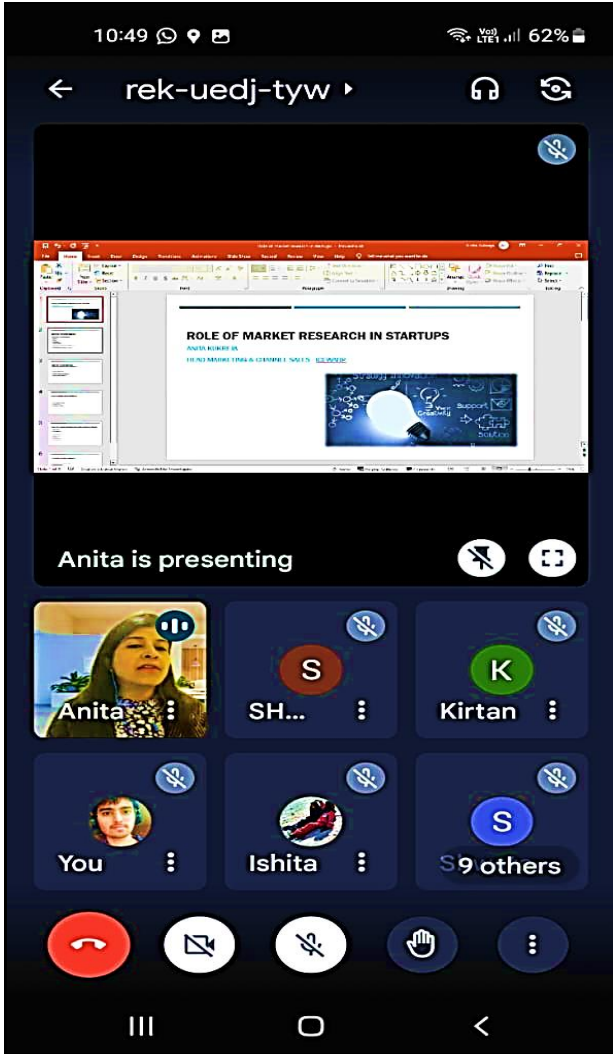

Also, she taught how to execute marketing planning, like promotion, acquiring funds, evolution of target itself, product portrayal, different mediums for the same (for instance, media & social media influencers), landscape expansion and at last but not the least, customers' feedback.

At the end, she briefed about how to do cost-beneficial market research, namely by utilising Google, its AdSense, Surveys, LinkedIn pages, surfing about the competitors, gaining information via reading, hiring interns as freshly educated and inexpensive intellectual labour, etc.

Lastly, the session was thrown open for question-answer, when student turned out to be doubtful due to an already well detailed & comprehensible presentation of Mrs. Anita.

The interactive webinar concluded when vote of thanks was expressed to Mrs. Anita Kukreja by the DLLE teacher Dr. Shobha Mathew on behalf of Somaiya management, principal, DLLE, EDC and staff members.

ACTIVITY NAME - 7 Days NSS Residential Camp

DATE/TIME – 10th TO 16th January, 2023

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS – 50

Department – NSS

VENUE: DHUNDALWADI, DAHANU

HIGHLIGHTS:

Day 1: 10th January, 2023

The NSS Unit of K J Somaiya College of Arts and Commerce (Autonomous) organised a 7-day Residential Camp at Dhundalwadi, Dahanu from 10th January to 16th January, 2023.

The first socio-cultural activity that took place was selecting a name for each group and preparing a slogan accordingly. After this, every team was given a subject for street play. On that day, the teams just had to prepare a plot and storyline. Around 8:00 pm, a feedback session took place, which was followed by dinner. Everybody washed their own utensils and went off to sleep in time.

Day 2: 11th January, 2023

The second day of the camp, i.e., 11th January, 2023 began with exercise.. Team 2 had taken charge of the kitchen, whereas the other 3 teams geared themselves for ‘Shramadaan.’ After reaching the worksite, volunteers were given instructions for constructing an embankment to obstruct water, which can be used later by the villagers. Embankments were to be constructed at two locations in the village of Halapada. The volunteers surrendered themselves to the task, created human chains for picking up stones and setting it into water

In the evening, the sociocultural activity of ‘Shark Tank’ was executed. The volunteers were expected to pitch some great business deals and ideas that would help curb the intensity of any social issue. For this reason, heavy rounds of discussion took place within the teams.

Thus, the second day at the camp was a productive one where every volunteer was vulnerable but at the same time dedicated and focused. In short, it was a day that made every volunteer aware of their hidden potential, guiding them on the pathway to a successful future.

DAY 3: 12th January, 2023

Volunteers were then given time to change for shramdhan and were called for breakfast. After breakfast, the volunteers left for shramdaan. Being the second day of hardwork, all the volunteers were very enthusiastic with their work and went head on and completed the first embankment. After this, the volunteers moved on to the next location where the second embankment was to be constructed. Having the experience, they broke the ground using mattocks and grab-hoe. Rags were filled and the first level was arranged. They left for the campsite then. The lunch was followed by an hour’s break, which was very necessary after the extra efforts taken during the shramdhan.

After having evening tea and an hour’s practice for the street play, the volunteers assembled for the sociocultural activity for the day.

DAY 4: 13th January, 2023

Day 4 started with all the students very enthusiastically participating in the morning routine, which included prayer and meditation. It was the last day of Shramdaan. The volunteers were very excited to see their hard work finally pay off. They were divided into teams comprising 15 members each. Teams were given the task of filling the sacks with soil to complete the second embankment. It was completed before time and so the volunteers played cricket with the villagers later, who turned out to be the best players.

The day concluded with volunteers enjoying the warm dinner, which was followed by the feedback session for the day.

DAY 5: 14th January, 2023

The day started with Campus Prayer, Lakshya Geet, and the National Anthem, which were followed by exercise for one hour. The morning exercise gave the volunteers strength to work full day in the winter. After that, they were served poha and tea. With full stomachs, they left for book and grain donations in the village of Haladpada in Dahanu. Books were donated in the local school for creating a library, while 200 packets of rice were donated amongst the tribals. Throughout the process, volunteers learnt the reality of the world, the tribals, interacted with the natives, and learned their language. It was enriching to meet the natives.

DAY 6: 15th January, 2023

The sixth day of NSS camp began with prayer, stretching, exercise and laughter club.

In the afternoon, all the four teams practiced for their street play. Two street plays on the topic 'youth and country' and 'education' were performed in the market place, while others on the topic 'widows' and 'cleanliness and hygiene' were showcased inside the village. They were impactful on the targeted audience, who could relate to the plays.

The campfire commenced with the last social activity, folk dancing, which included forms like Bhangra, Gondhal, Garba and Koli. Volunteers also showcased their own talents and bonded well in the warm environment created. The enthusiasm and energy shown was appreciable. All the volunteers had dispersed to their respective rooms by 11:00 pm.

DAY 7: 16th January, 2023

Day 7 of the camp commenced by 7:00 am with it being the last day. The allotted kitchen team for the day went to their respective duties, and the rest of the teams began winding up the accommodations, from cleaning to loading the resources for the return journey. After breakfast, the bus arrived, and after inspection and final surveying, the week-long camp came to an end. At the college, volunteers were welcomed by I/C principal Dr. Veena Sanekar's words. Volunteers shared their experience with her. The camp ended on a successful and memorable note, with a greater sense of well-being for the community and the importance of a person's influence in it. A lot of lessons were learned and virtue of adjustment was enhanced.

The event began with the flag hoisting, followed by the national anthem, which was performed with great reverence and pride. Following the anthem, there was a display of parade by the National Cadet Corps (NCC), NSS Units and the campus security force. The parade also featured a range of activities such as lezim, and the display of traditional costumes of various parts of India to show the unity in diversity which was performed by our own unit.

This was followed by a variety of performances, with students from different institutes showing off their talents with dance, singing, and yoga displays, expressing their love for the country. The event concluded with the speech of Shri. Samir Somaiya which focused on the importance of patriotism in today's day and age while also emphasising the need to stay united as a nation in times of distress.

This speech highlighted the spirit of nationalism that echoed throughout the event, which was an ode to the nation and its citizens, bringing the entire parade to a rousing and emotional close. The event was a huge success overall.

ACTIVITY NAME - Guest Lecture on Social Media and Cyber Crime

DATE/TIME – 25th January 2023

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS – 50

Department – English Department

The second activity guest lecture conducted by Department of English, K.J Somaiya College of Arts and Commerce was on ‘Social Media and Cyber Crime. It was held on Wednesday, 25th January 2023 from 11.00 am in the Conference Room of the college.. The guest lecture was by Siddharth Chaubey, an alumnus of the college, a law student and a vlogger.

Tinal Gupta from TYBA welcomed the audience and the guest speaker. It was followed by Dr. Satyawan Hanegave, Head of the Department, introducing the speaker, He mentioned that such lectures comes under ‘Alumni Engagement Programme’. He also spoke about social media and cybercrimes. Siddharth Chaubey was then facilitated by Dr. Satyawan Hanegave and Dr. Meera Venkatesh with a bouquet and a momento.

The guest then began his lecture, starting with cybercrimes. He explained various cybercrimes, laws related to the crimes, and which of the crimes can attract a penalty fine or even having to go behind the bars. He then went on to social media. What it is and various social media platforms. He spoke about oversharing on social media with hilarious yet realistic examples of how people share every bit of their life on social media and how can it create problems for the person. Crimes on social media were mentioned and how they can affect a person’s mental health. Dopamine crash was discussed, i.e. how a crash of dopamine levels can be confused with depression. Social media or any activity one likes can give a dopamine spike, and when there is a pause or abrupt stop to it, it can lead to a dip in dopamine levels, which gets confused with depression. Related to cybercrimes (on social media), things like various platforms or mobile applications tracking our locations without our consent or knowledge were also touched upon. It led to the point that how privacy on social media, or even when you purchase a device, is stolen, that privacy is a myth.

He ended his lecture by talking about social comparison on social media, Fear of missing out (FOMO), etc. and how we start to compare our lives with that of others on social media. It was followed by a discussion session.

Radhika Taylor from SYBA brought the fun and informative guest lecture to an end with her vote of thanks. 50 students benefitted from this lecture.

ACTIVITY NAME - Website Building Workshop

DATE/TIME – 26th January 2023

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS – 55

Department – Economics Association

Day 1 Date: 26th January, 2023

Time: 3:00- 4:00 pm

Venue: Google Meet

Day 2 Date: 28th January, 2023

Time: 12:00- 1:00 pm

Venue: IT Lab

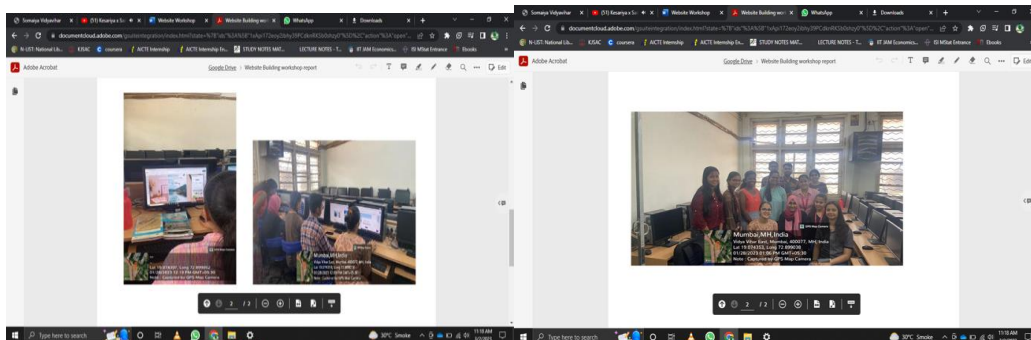

Purpose of the program

To impart technical skills and knowledge regarding website development among the members of the Economic Association.

About the program

Day 1: The members of the Economics Association who had participated in a website building workshop started joining the session at 3:00 pm. Web tech core Janavi gave a welcome speech to the students which was followed by our college's alumna Vidhi Jain's brief introduction. Vidhi very clearly taught the students about website building via wix.com. The session was quite interactive. The students who were unaware about website building got a clear picture about the process. In the later part of the session the students cleared their doubts with Vidhi about website building. Finally, Deepali Ma'am joined and concluded the session with a speech. The session ended at 4 pm and students left after filling the feedback form. Participants were provided with pre-recorded videos on how to post blog and current affairs as well as the recorded session of the online workshop.

Day 2: The second day of the website building workshop was held in the IT lab. Students started assembling in the IT lab at 12 noon. This part of the workshop was to give hands-on training to the students. Students sat with individual computers in the lab and started creating their own websites under the guidance of third year web-tech volunteers. Students enthusiastically designed their own websites according to their own likings and published it in the span of 40 minutes. Then, they were provided with a sample blog which they learnt to publish. The workshop ended with every participant successfully learning to create their own website and receiving an e-certificate for the same. Everyone enjoyed this practical workshop and received invaluable knowledge and skills.
